Assisted Living and Residential Care Administration is a new and rapidly emerging health profession in which minimum standards of education for administrators are just being established. Organized around the current domains of practice for nursing home administrators, this self-study guide has 675 test questions in the national exam format. Each question is referenced to Allen's major text, ASSISTED LIVING ADMINISTRATION, to explain why your answers are correct or incorrect. This guide will test the knowledge of current administrators and educate them to run efficiently an assisted living or residential care facility so that it meets current federal requirements for safety and excellence.

Assisted living, the fastest growing residential option, burst upon the American landscape in the late 1980's. These facilities serve persons who no longer are able to live independently and need help with the activities of daily living, but do not need 24-hour nursing care. James Allen has updated and refined this second edition of Assisted Living Administration to include new information on the Senate Aging Taskforce report of 2003, and the financial shape of the industry. The volume also covers resident care issues, aging theories, as well as new industry data. This volume is intended as a text for professionals-in-training for certification, in addition to being a resource for the seasoned administrator.
