The King Ranch Legacy - King Ranch

Up until that point, King Ranch had not been involved in the Thoroughbred industry – Quarter-Horses were the breed of choice for ranch work – but in 1934, a well-bred Thoroughbred by the name of Chicaro caught Kleberg's eye, and the purchase of this stallion marked the start of King Ranch's foray into the Thoroughbred industry.

King Ranch: A Classic Racing Legacy | America's Best Racing

King Ranch entered the Thoroughbred industry in 1934 with the purchase of CHICARO, who was acquired to add his genetic qualities to the ranch's Quarter Horse line. He was also crossed with Thoroughbred mares bought in 1935, thus beginning the study and experimentation of crossing American and European strains and the use of line breeding to develop the ranch's Thoroughbreds.
